About

Adrian High School: A Tradition of Excellence in Michigan

Adrian High School, located in the historic city of Adrian, Michigan, offers a comprehensive and dynamic educational experience. As part of the Adrian Public School District, the high school serves over 790 students, providing an enriching environment that emphasizes academic rigor, sportsmanship, and creativity. The school's mantra, "Tradition of Opportunities and Future of Possibilities," echoes through its classrooms, arts programs, and athletic fields, offering students multiple pathways to excel.

A Diverse Academic Foundation

Adrian High School offers a broad academic curriculum that prepares students for college and careers. Students can take advantage of the International Baccalaureate (IB) program, Advanced Placement (AP) courses, and dual enrollment options with local colleges. The school is committed to fostering an inclusive environment, with a student body representing a rich mix of cultural backgrounds. While Adrian High School's state test scores have room for improvement, its graduation rate surpasses the state average, reflecting the school's commitment to student success.

Highlights and Awards

In 2023, Adrian High School's yearbook program was awarded the prestigious Jostens National Yearbook Program of Excellence Award at the Gold Level. This honor highlights the school's ability to engage students in meaningful creative projects, fostering skills such as communication and collaboration. Additionally, Adrian High School has a strong tradition in both academic and athletic fields, encouraging students to participate in 23 varsity sports and 27 extracurricular club.

State-of-the-Art Facilities

Adrian High School prides itself on offering cutting-edge facilities that serve both academic and extracurricular needs. Recent upgrades, funded by the community, include improvements in security, technology, and athletic spaces. Students benefit from well-maintained classrooms, a robust library, modern science labs, and specialized arts facilities. Athletic amenities include a full-size gymnasium, outdoor fields, and access to a weight training area, making Adrian a hub for both educational and athletic development.
