About

This is an Educatus F-1 Exclusive school: Althoff Catholic High School: Nurturing Faith and Excellence in Belleville, Illinois

Since opening its doors in 1964, Althoff Catholic High School in Belleville, Illinois, has been dedicated to fostering both academic excellence and spiritual growth. As a private Roman Catholic institution under the Diocese of Belleville, Althoff serves students from grades 9 through 12, providing a comprehensive education rooted in Catholic values.

The school offers a robust curriculum across ten academic departments, including art, business, English, foreign language, mathematics, music, physical education, science, social studies, and theology. Althoff emphasizes a well-rounded education, offering over 100 courses to cater to diverse student interests and academic goals.

Highlights of Academic Excellence

Althoff Catholic High School boasts a student-teacher ratio of 14:1, allowing for personalized instruction and meaningful teacher-student relationships. The school is accredited by the National Catholic Education Association, the Diocese of Belleville, and the Illinois State Board of Education, ensuring adherence to high educational standards.

Modern and Expansive Facilities

The campus features modern classrooms, science laboratories, and dedicated spaces for the arts, providing an environment conducive to academic and extracurricular pursuits. The school is also developing a STREAM (Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics) Lab to enhance interdisciplinary learning.

Excellence in Sports and the Arts

Athletics play a significant role at Althoff, with the school offering a variety of sports for both boys and girls, including baseball, basketball, football, golf, soccer, swimming, tennis, volleyball, and wrestling. The Crusaders have a history of competitive success, fostering teamwork and school spirit. The arts are equally emphasized, with programs in band, choir, and theater encouraging students to explore and develop their creative talents.

Special Programs that Build Character

Althoff offers unique programs such as annual retreats for each grade level, culminating in a Senior Service Project where students dedicate three weeks to community service in settings like daycares, grade schools, and nursing homes. This commitment to service
