About

Bishop Kelly High School: Nurturing Excellence in the Heart of Idaho

Nestled in Boise, Idaho, Bishop Kelly High School stands as a beacon of academic excellence and holistic development. Established in 1964, this private Catholic institution has dedicated itself to fostering the growth of students in spirit, mind, and body, adhering to its mission of academic excellence, moral leadership, and social responsibility.

Academic Excellence and Personal Growth

At Bishop Kelly, the academic program is both rigorous and diverse, offering a comprehensive curriculum that includes Advanced Placement courses. With a student-to-teacher ratio of 12:1, the school ensures personalized attention, enabling students to thrive academically.

Cutting-Edge Facilities for Every Need

The campus boasts state-of-the-art facilities designed to support a wide range of student interests. These include the Nick Yursa Stadium, the Carley Athletic Center, the Angie Harrison Tennis Complex, the Chuck Irvine Soccer and Lacrosse Field, an indoor baseball and softball hitting facility, and expansive playing fields. These amenities provide students with ample opportunities to engage in various athletic and extracurricular activities.

Thriving in Sports and the Arts

Bishop Kelly offers a vibrant sports program with boys' and girls' athletic teams competing in the Southern Idaho Conference, 4A Division. The school's commitment to athletics is evident in its comprehensive facilities and the success of its teams. Additionally, the school provides robust programs in visual arts, theatre arts, and music, encouraging students to explore and develop their creative talents.

Innovative Special Programs

Beyond traditional academics, Bishop Kelly offers special programs that cater to the diverse interests of its students. These include a 1-to-1 technology initiative, service learning opportunities, and a variety of student organizations and clubs that make a real difference in the school and community.
