About

Welcome to Bonneville High School: A Tradition of Excellence in Idaho Falls

A Vibrant Academic Community

Located in the heart of Idaho Falls, Bonneville High School is a proud educational institution with a strong commitment to academic and personal growth. Part of Bonneville Joint School District 93, the school serves students from grades 9 through 12, with an enrollment of approximately 1,128 students. Bonneville offers a comprehensive curriculum that balances core academic subjects with Advanced Placement (AP) courses, preparing students for both college and careers. The school consistently performs well on state standardized tests, especially in English Language Arts, math, and science.

Highlights and Achievements

Bonneville High School is well known for its inclusive and nurturing environment, where students are encouraged to excel academically and personally. It's not just the classroom success that shines—Bonneville is home to a diverse and engaging student body, many of whom participate in a variety of extracurricular activities that enhance their high school experience.

Impressive Facilities

The school boasts modern facilities, including two gymnasiums, a weight room, wrestling room, band and choir rooms, and a 300-seat theater. The school also has extensive outdoor athletic spaces with a football stadium, soccer fields, and tennis courts. These state-of-the-art facilities enable students to excel in sports and the arts.

Sports and Arts: Where Tradition Meets Talent

Bonneville's athletic teams, known as the Bonneville Bees, compete in the High Country Conference (5A) and offer an array of sports including football, basketball, soccer, volleyball, wrestling, and swimming. The school has a rich history of athletic achievement, with multiple teams consistently competing at the state level. Beyond athletics, the arts programs at Bonneville are thriving. The band, choir, and theater programs are particularly strong, allowing students to showcase their creative talents in front of packed audiences.

Special Programs to Inspire

Bonneville High School offers special programs that empower students to explore their interests and expand their learning beyond traditional academics. The school provides Advanced Opportunities, which include dual enrollment courses and career technical
