About

Chelsea High School: A Tradition of Excellence and Community

Situated in the heart of Chelsea, Michigan, Chelsea High School (CHS) is a hub of academic excellence and personal growth. Serving approximately 800 students from grades 9-12, this public school is known for its rigorous curriculum and commitment to producing well-rounded individuals. With a strong emphasis on both academics and extracurricular activities, CHS offers students the chance to excel in a variety of disciplines. The school consistently ranks among the top 10% of high schools in Michigan, boasting a graduation rate of 97%, significantly higher than the state average.

Highlights

What sets Chelsea High School apart is its holistic approach to education. The school's curriculum includes a wide array of Advanced Placement (AP) courses, challenging students to achieve at high levels. CHS also offers elective courses designed to develop practical skills and creativity. Beyond the classroom, the school promotes leadership, responsibility, and empathy, in line with its "Portrait of a Graduate" initiative, which ensures students are well-prepared for college and careers.

Facilities

Chelsea High School's facilities are designed to support both academic and extracurricular excellence. Students benefit from modern science labs, a comprehensive library, and cutting-edge technology resources. The campus is also home to expansive athletic fields, a gymnasium, and performance spaces that host theater productions, concerts, and other events. The school's beautiful outdoor areas encourage both physical activity and community gathering.

Sports & Arts

CHS takes pride in its outstanding sports and arts programs. The school is a powerhouse in athletics, offering sports such as football, basketball, baseball, softball, soccer, and ice hockey. Both boys' and girls' teams compete at high levels, with the Bulldogs' football team making frequent playoff appearances. CHS is also home to the Saline-Chelsea cooperative ski team, which competes during the winter months.

In the arts, Chelsea High School shines just as brightly. The school's theater productions and band performances are popular events, showcasing students' artistic talents. The marching band, particularly, is a celebrated group within the community, frequently performing at school events and beyond.
