About

Christian Heritage School: Nurturing Minds and Hearts in Dalton, Georgia

Nestled in the heart of Dalton, Georgia, Christian Heritage School (CHS) has been a beacon of faith-based education since its founding in 1986. Serving students from kindergarten through 12th grade, CHS is dedicated to "Educating Children to Serve Christ," seamlessly integrating rigorous academics with spiritual growth.

Academic Excellence and Holistic Development

At CHS, academic rigor is complemented by a nurturing environment that fosters character, confidence, and integrity. With a student-teacher ratio of 6:1, personalized attention is a hallmark, ensuring each student's unique potential is recognized and cultivated. The curriculum is enriched with Advanced Placement courses, preparing students for higher education and beyond.

State-of-the-Art Facilities

The CHS campus spans 150 acres, with the north side dedicated to students in grades 9-12, offering a focused environment for high school education. This expansive setting features modern classrooms, science laboratories, art studios, and athletic facilities, all designed to support a comprehensive educational experience.

Athletics and the Arts: A Balanced Approach

CHS offers a robust athletics program, including sports such as football, basketball, soccer, and volleyball. The school's commitment to athletics is evident in its competitive teams and dedicated coaching staff. In the arts, students can explore their creative talents through programs in music, theater, and visual arts, fostering a well-rounded education.

Distinctive Programs and Community Engagement

Beyond academics and extracurriculars, CHS emphasizes servant leadership and community involvement. Programs like the Director of Servant Leadership and the Director of Missions encourage students to engage in meaningful service, reflecting the school's mission to develop compassionate leaders.
