About

East Side Union High School District: Cultivating Excellence in the Heart of Silicon Valley

Nestled in the vibrant city of San Jose, California, the East Side Union High School District (ESUHSD) has been a cornerstone of secondary education since 1950. Serving over 24,000 students across 19 high schools, ESUHSD is dedicated to fostering academic excellence and holistic development in a diverse and dynamic community.

Academic Excellence and Diverse Offerings

ESUHSD's commitment to academic rigor is evident in its comprehensive curriculum, which spans core subjects and advanced courses in STEM, arts, and humanities. The district prioritizes individualized support and innovative teaching strategies, ensuring that students are well-prepared for their next steps—whether they pursue higher education, vocational training, or enter the workforce.

Notable Achievements and Community Impact

The district's achievements are numerous, including consistently high graduation rates and a diverse student body that mirrors the rich cultural tapestry of San Jose. ESUHSD's unwavering commitment to equity and inclusion ensures that every student has the opportunity to succeed.

State-of-the-Art Facilities

ESUHSD's campuses are equipped with modern classrooms featuring the latest technology, specialized laboratories for hands-on STEM learning, and performing arts facilities that showcase students' creative talents. These state-of-the-art facilities provide an engaging and stimulating environment for both academic and extracurricular pursuits.

Thriving Sports and Arts Programs

Recognizing the importance of a well-rounded education, ESUHSD offers robust athletic programs that include a variety of sports, fostering sportsmanship, teamwork, and physical well-being. Additionally, the district's vibrant arts programs provide students with opportunities to express their creativity through music, drama, visual arts, and more.
