Gonzaga Preparatory School: Nurturing Leaders in the Heart of Spokane

Nestled in Spokane, Washington, Gonzaga Preparatory School stands as a beacon of Jesuit education, committed to molding students into compassionate leaders and lifelong learners. Established in 1887, this private Catholic high school has a rich history of academic excellence and community service.

Academic Excellence and Holistic Development

At Gonzaga Prep, education transcends traditional academics. The school offers a rigorous college preparatory curriculum designed to challenge and inspire students. With a student-teacher ratio of 12:1, personalized attention ensures that each student's unique potential is recognized and nurtured. The faculty, experts in their respective fields, are dedicated to fostering intellectual engagement and critical thinking.

State-of-the-Art Facilities

The campus boasts modern facilities that support a comprehensive educational experience. Classrooms are equipped with advanced technology to enhance learning, while science laboratories provide hands-on opportunities for exploration. The library serves as a resource hub, encouraging research and independent study. Additionally, the campus includes athletic facilities that cater to a variety of sports and physical activities.

Vibrant Arts and Athletics Programs

Gonzaga Prep offers a diverse array of extracurricular activities, particularly excelling in athletics and the arts. The school's sports teams, known as the Bullpups, participate in various competitions, fostering teamwork and leadership among students. The arts program encourages creative expression through music, theater, and visual arts, providing students with platforms to showcase their talents.

Innovative Special Programs

Emphasizing the Jesuit value of 'cura personalis'—care for the whole person—Gonzaga Prep offers programs that promote personal growth and social responsibility. Community service initiatives are integral to the student experience, instilling a commitment to justice and service. Spiritual retreats and leadership workshops further support students in their personal and moral development.
