About

Hamilton High School: Excellence in Education and Beyond

Located in Chandler, Arizona, Hamilton High School stands as one of the largest and most prestigious schools in the state. Established in 1998, it quickly became a beacon of academic excellence, serving over 3,900 students from grades 9 to 12. The school is part of the Chandler Unified School District and follows a robust curriculum that is continually aligned with Arizona's high standards in education.

School & Academics

Hamilton High offers a rigorous academic environment, with a strong emphasis on Advanced Placement (AP) courses and dual-enrollment opportunities through partnerships with Chandler-Gilbert Community College and the University of Arizona. This allows students to earn college credits even before graduation. The school consistently ranks in the top 10% of Arizona high schools. Math and reading proficiency levels also outshine state benchmarks, with 68% of students excelling in math compared to Arizona's 35% average.

Highlights of the School

Hamilton High's diversity and inclusive environment are noteworthy, with students from various ethnic backgrounds coming together in an academically vibrant setting. The school places a strong emphasis on both personal and professional development, preparing students to succeed in future endeavors.

State-of-the-Art Facilities

Hamilton High boasts extensive facilities, including modern classrooms equipped for STEM education, a cutting-edge library, and dedicated spaces for arts and music programs. The school also has impressive athletic facilities that support various sports teams and a robust extracurricular infrastructure for student clubs and activities.

Excellence in Sports and Arts

Athletically, Hamilton High is a powerhouse. The school's teams, known as the Huskies, compete in the Arizona Interscholastic Association's 6A Conference. Hamilton's football and baseball programs are particularly strong, having won several state championships over the years. Students also thrive in arts programs, with the band, orchestra, and theater departments earning accolades in statewide competitions.
