About

Providence Catholic: A Legacy of Excellence

Nestled in the heart of New Lenox, Illinois, Providence Catholic High School stands as a beacon of academic excellence and spiritual growth. Established in 1880, this esteemed institution has cultivated a rich tradition of nurturing well-rounded individuals prepared to make meaningful contributions to society.

Academics and Achievement

At Providence Catholic, education transcends traditional learning. The school offers a comprehensive curriculum that includes Advanced Placement (AP) courses across various disciplines, providing students with opportunities to engage in rigorous academic challenges. The dedicated faculty fosters an environment where critical thinking and intellectual curiosity thrive, ensuring that each student is well-prepared for higher education and beyond.

Recognizing Success

The school's commitment to excellence is evident in its numerous accolades. In November 2024, 51 seniors were honored as Illinois State Scholars, representing 29% of the graduating class—a testament to the students' dedication and the school's supportive learning environment.

A Campus Designed for Growth

Providence Catholic's 75-acre campus is designed to support a holistic educational experience. State-of-the-art science laboratories, a modern library, and dedicated spaces for the arts and athletics provide students with the resources they need to excel in various pursuits.

Thriving in Sports and the Arts

Athletics and the arts are integral to student life at Providence Catholic. The school boasts a remarkable record of 32 state championships, the most among private high schools in Illinois. Students participate in a variety of sports, including baseball, football, wrestling, and more, competing in the Chicago Catholic League and the Girls Catholic Athletic Conference. The arts programs, encompassing choir, jazz, and concert band, have earned accolades through performances in ILMEA, IHSA, and other esteemed festivals.
