Saint Joseph Notre Dame High School: A Legacy of Excellence in Alameda

Nestled in the picturesque, tree-lined streets of Alameda, California, Saint Joseph Notre Dame High School (SJND) has been a cornerstone of academic and spiritual excellence since its establishment in 1881. This Catholic college preparatory institution has served as a nurturing ground for intellectual, spiritual, and personal growth for over 140 years, creating a vibrant community dedicated to student success.

Academics: A Foundation for Lifelong Achievement

SJND is committed to academic rigor and excellence, offering a dynamic and comprehensive curriculum designed to prepare students for higher education and beyond. The school's Advanced Placement (AP) program has earned prestigious honors, including the AP School Honor Roll Platinum recognition and the AP Access Award from the College Board, highlighting its dedication to fostering success among all students.

Highlights: A Culture of Excellence and Innovation

Through its focus on inclusivity and opportunity, SJND has been recognized as the #1 most diverse high school in the Bay Area by Niche. This accolade reflects the school's welcoming and inclusive environment, fostering a culture where every student is valued and empowered to excel.

Facilities: A Campus Designed for Success

The SJND campus offers state-of-the-art facilities to support student learning and extracurricular engagement. Modern science labs, a well-equipped library, and specialized arts spaces like a theater and music rooms create a well-rounded learning environment. Additionally, the campus features a gymnasium and athletic fields to support a variety of physical and sporting activities.

Sports and Arts: Excellence Beyond the Classroom

SJND excels in both athletics and the arts. Over 70 percent of the student body participates in athletic programs, fostering teamwork and school spirit. In the arts, the school's award-winning visual and performing arts programs provide students with opportunities to explore their creative talents, develop confidence, and showcase their skills in theater, music, and visual design.
