About

Valley Catholic High School: A Legacy of Excellence

Nestled in the heart of Beaverton, Oregon, Valley Catholic High School stands as a beacon of faith-based education, fostering a community of lifelong learners and compassionate leaders. Established in 1903 by the Sisters of St. Mary of Oregon, the school has evolved over the past century, embracing coeducation in 1991 and continually adapting to meet the needs of its diverse student body.

Academics: A Tradition of Academic Rigor

Valley Catholic High School offers a rigorous academic program designed to prepare students for higher education and beyond. With a student-teacher ratio of 10:1 and an average class size of 18, personalized attention is a hallmark of the educational experience. The curriculum includes Advanced Placement courses, providing students with opportunities to challenge themselves and earn college credit.

Highlights: A Legacy of Achievement

The school's commitment to excellence is evident in its numerous accolades. Valley Catholic has been honored with the OSAA Cup eight times, recognizing overall excellence in academics, athletics, activities, and sportsmanship. The volleyball team clinched back-to-back 4A State Titles in 2018 and 2019, while the dance team, Charisma, has secured multiple state championships.

Facilities: A Campus Designed for Inspiration

Situated on a picturesque 43-acre campus adorned with sequoia-lined pathways, gardens, and old-growth timber, Valley Catholic provides an inspiring environment for learning and personal growth. The campus is also home to the Valley Catholic Music School, offering lessons to students and community members alike.

Sports & Arts: Thriving on Excellence and Creativity

Athletics and the arts play a pivotal role in student life. With a no-cut policy, 79% of students participate in sports such as basketball, cross country, and soccer. Additionally, 50% of students engage in fine arts programs, including band, choir, drama, and orchestra, fostering creativity and teamwork.
