About

Valley Lutheran High School: Where Faith Meets Excellence in Education

Nestled in the heart of Phoenix, Arizona, Valley Lutheran High School has been nurturing the academic and spiritual growth of its students since 1981. As a private Christian high school affiliated with the Lutheran Church, Valley Lutheran combines rigorous academics with a strong foundation in faith, creating a supportive and nurturing environment for students in grades 9 through 12.

A Strong Foundation in Academics and Faith

Valley Lutheran High School emphasizes a comprehensive college preparatory curriculum that weaves Christian values into daily learning. With an enrollment of approximately 134 students, the school fosters a close-knit community where the student-teacher ratio stands at 6:1, allowing personalized attention and mentorship. Alongside a variety of Advanced Placement and honors courses, Valley Lutheran offers dual-enrollment options for college credit, positioning its students well for future academic endeavors.

Highlights of Excellence and Integrity

The mission of Valley Lutheran extends beyond academics, aiming to develop well-rounded individuals who serve and lead with integrity. Students are encouraged to participate in community service and are instilled with values that prioritize compassion, faith, and social responsibility. Each year, Valley's seniors participate in a traditional orientation retreat in Prescott, Arizona, where they build camaraderie and strengthen their spiritual foundation.

State-of-the-Art Facilities

The Valley Lutheran campus is equipped with a wide array of facilities, including a modern gymnasium and dedicated classrooms for the sciences and arts. Located in Phoenix's Midtown neighborhood, the school benefits from proximity to cultural and recreational amenities, creating a dynamic environment that enhances student life.

Athletics and the Arts

Valley Lutheran is home to the Flames, a competitive sports program with offerings in football, baseball, basketball, track, cross country, volleyball, and more. These programs foster teamwork, discipline, and sportsmanship, with several teams competing at state and regional levels. The arts are also a vibrant part of campus life, with visual arts, choir, and band programs that provide students a chance to explore their creative talents.
